

Mr. Allen M. Dulles,

CIA Deputy Director,

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

An article that appeared in the Milwaukee Journal entitled, "Reading Stalin's Mind" prompted me to write you top secret information that you may already have at your disposal, but seems so utterly fantastic that the following data will be filed away and never called to the attention of our chiefs of staff in our national defense strategy:

(1) The Kremlin will keep the vast Russian armed forces from overrunning the European countries until a devastating, overwhelming atomic attack over leading United States cities is accomplished first, perhaps in April or May of 1952. Our cities will be burned out similar to the great San Francisco holocaust of 1906, due to the lack of water pressure. Russian engineers know the exact location of every water pumping station, every powerhouse of electrical power, which will be knocked out of commission before the industrial factories are paralyzed by plain "blackouts."

(2) All officers of the Russian forces were compelled to learn the English language for obvious reasons to better control American conduct according to the Kremlin's master plan. [Which I do not know fully.] (3) Despite terrible destruction and millions of casualties, U.S.A. will survive somehow, but the costliest way - lack of foresight and adequate anti attack domestic preparedness.

Radar will prove ineffective when our airplane watchers spot many waves of Russian aircraft approaching U.S. soil simultaneously. Our forces of fighter planes will not prevent Russian bombs from falling, as such distances of 2,000 miles to counterattack over Canadian soil from Randolph Field, Texas, for example, is too great for tactical and practical reasons.

(4) Finally, the Kremlin is winning World War III with a tremendous head start through the tragedy of Korea. They have not lost a single soldier, while American lives have been sacrificed in vain to the appalling total of over 100,000 casualties. Diplomatically, we have played right in the hands of the Kremlin's master plan, whether our policy is aggression or appeasement. The only feasible solution to contain communism and prevent world conquest (once U.S.A. is paralyzed, Europe is doomed automatically) is to give an ultimatum to the Kremlin that Russian troops everywhere must withdraw into the Russian borders, including the Berlin sector, or U.S. forces will attack without warning. It is calling Stalin's perpetual bluff once and for all, and the world will respect us for posterity's sake.
